Learning Differences

We all learn in different ways. Some of us are good readers and writers. Others enjoy speaking and listening. Many of us have Learning Differences. This can make learning more difficult. Famous people like Napoleon, Einstein, Tom Cruise, Picasso and John Lennon had Learning Differences.

To learn more about learning differences, you can watch a video at <http://tinyurl.com/whatareLDs> or read or listen about it at <http://tinyurl.com/readaboutLDs>

Resources on campus

Many American and international students get help from campus resources every day. This helps them learn more efficiently.

Accessible Education Center <http://aec.uoregon.edu/index.html>

- They help students with Learning Differences every term.
- This is a free service.
- You need a letter from a counselor or a doctor that says you have a Learning Difference to get help here.
- Please come to the AEI Academic Advising Office in 160 Pacific/Onyx Bridge to talk more about this.
